

HEOA – Textbook Provisions

The Higher Education Opportunity Act (HEOA) requires institutions of higher education who receive federal financial assistance (including private institutions), to the maximum extent practicable, and in a manner of the institution's choosing, to disclose the following:

To their Students-

Required and recommended textbooks and supplemental materials for each course, including the International Standard Book Number (ISBN) and retail price information, with the internet course schedule used for pre-registration and registration purposes. This information may be provided through a link in the internet course schedule to another appropriate web site, such as the bookstore. If course textbook or supplemental material information is not available at that time, "To Be Determined" will be designated.

To their Campus Bookstore-

Enrollment information and adoption/requisition information for the subsequent academic period.

Covenant is in compliance with the HEOA requirements by working closely with the bookstore and providing a link to the web site with our internet course schedule for the Nebraska Book Company which is www.covenantcollegebookstore.com. Students are able to search by term, course number and section number for the textbooks and materials required for each class. Students may obtain the ISBN and retail price, as well as purchase new or used textbooks and materials from on this website.
